Growing Recipe CORYDALIS BLUE HERON

|                                     | Ap  | pro | ximate Finish | n Time F | rom Liner  |   | Minimum =================================== | = Maximum           |    |  |
|-------------------------------------|------------|-----|----------------------|-----------------|--|---|---|---------------------|----|--|
| PotSize                         | Plug to 4" |     |                      |                 |  |   |   |                     |    |  |
| We                                  | eks        | 1   | 2                    | 3               | 4  | 5 | 6   | 7                   | 8  |  |
|                                     |            |     |                      |                 |  |   |   |                     |    |  |
| pH: 5.6 - 6.6 Fertilization Recomme |            |     |                      | ommendati       | ons: 50 PPM  |   |   | EC : 0.5 - 0 | .7 |  |
| Light Levels: Shade to part shade   |            |     |                      | Wat             | Water Requirements: Dry moderately between waterings             |   |   |                     |    |  |
| Hardiness Zones: 6 - 8              |            |     |                      | Poss            | Possible Problems: Insect: Mites, aphids, snail and slugs are    |   |   |                     |    |  |
| Habit: Clumping                     |            |     |                      |                 | possibilities Diseases: Root rot, if they don't have good |   |   |                     |    |  |
| Day Length for Flowering: Long day  |            |     |                      |                 | drainage   |   |   |                     |    |  |

Do NOT bury the crown of the plug

Description

Our darkest blooming Corydalis features the largest flowers in our collection! Dark gentian-blue flowers float atop stunning red stems and are enhanced by the blue green foliage. This form bloomed all spring and summer for us in Oregon. A marvelous Corydalis collected in Sichuan, China by Mr. Dan Hinkley. Will go summer dormant if it is kept too dry or hot.

